FOREWORD

Like the variegated, ever-changing images that appear in a kaleidoscope, the student body of a high school is constantly changing. West High resembles that kaleidoscope, and each year represents a turn, and an introduction to a new arrangement of symmetrical happenings.

It is the people of West—the students, administration, faculty, and many other workers—who give life to our imaginary kaleidoscope, and help transform its mirrored reflections to realistic situations.

This school animation is the most outstanding part of our kaleidoscopic pattern. The congested corridors, morning bulletins, and busy classrooms; the various elections, club meetings, dances, and athletic events are very fond and familiar examples of high school life at West that can be sighted in the 1964 whirl of the kaleidoscope.

Dr. Edwin J. Friesen, Principal

To the Students of West High School:

The world in which the students of West High School live is one in which "change" appears to be one of the dominant influences. Automation is replacing manpower, electronic computers are proving to be more accurate and rapid than human brains, jet power and air waves are shrinking the world into a neighborhood, and supersonic speed and rocket fire are making space and other planets almost as real to us as the more remote places of the globe. Yes, "change" seems to be one of the few constants of living left.

It is for this kind of world that West High School seeks to prepare you students. Be it your choice to continue further schooling or to find a place of employment after graduation, your preparation at West High School should help substantially to qualify you.

As you carry West's pioneer spirit to wherever destiny takes you, may those who learn to know you see youth's best in you. You are and deserve no less.

I trust that good fortune and God's speed shall be yours.

Edwin J. Friesen

James T. Dye, B.S., M.A., Professional Diploma
Vice-Principal

Wilbur C. Dorsey, B.S., M.A., Ed.S.
Assistant Principal

Always busy, always interested, Mr. Dorsey keeps West High operating smoothly and efficiently. His friendly relationship with the students promotes better student, faculty understanding.

The office of vice-principal is aptly filled by Mr. Dye. He successfully carries out his numerous responsibilities while maintaining the respect and admiration of the students.

Advice giving is a full time job requiring four counselors to perform it. Mr. Froning helps seniors make plans for their further education. Mr. Wilmoth assists juniors in their many schedule problems and Miss Beaver aids confused sophomores in learning their way around school. This year West has added a special counselor, Mr. Williams.

Faculty Faces

feature frustration, fun, and friendliness

Efficient leadership is the key to a well-organized school. The seventy-one faculty members of West High School provide this necessary leadership. Of these, twenty joined the teaching staff this fall. Only nine were filling positions vacated last spring. Eleven were added to meet the needs of our growing school, with a record enrollment of over 1900. Under faculty guidance students grow mentally and physically as they increase their academic knowledge.

Always available for extra help and advice, teachers often serve above and beyond the call of duty. An example of this is their sponsorship of clubs, organizations and other school activities. They spend a large portion of their own time in seeing that these organizations run smoothly and efficiently.

Teachers are truly a valuable asset to the student kaleidoscope.

ZEPESTS

Royalty and attendants at the football dance are Marion Manlove, Dennis McCabe, Frank Bush, Ron Franks, King Jim Brown, Queen Gigi Foreman, Clarissa Sell, Cheryl Clark, Pat Thompson, Carla Wulf.

West's annual football dance "Football Finals" ended the football season on a fun note. Held Nov. 16 in our school cafeteria, the dance had decorations of miniature goal posts and the school colors in crepe paper. Jim Brown and Gigi Foreman reigned as Mr. and Miss Touchdown.

Jim and Gigi Reign

"Football Finals"

Enthusiastic Jim Brown!

The royalty are anxiously opening their gifts.

And now the crowning of the eleventh Miss Santa, Pat Thompson.

Mistletoe Magic

Pat Thompson reigns over Christmas Dance

At the eleventh annual Christmas Dance, junior, Pat Thompson was chosen as Miss Santa. Candidates were Carla Wulf, Jan Henrie, Jan Merchant, Robin Ragland, and Pat Thompson. The cafeteria was dressed in green and white streamers. Tom Stovey, senior class president, was master of ceremonies.

The gaily decorated cafeteria sets the mood for the Miss Santa Dance.

The long awaited moment is here as the runner is about to give the judges' decision to Tom Stovey.

"But Charles, I like it here!"

"Oh, I see what you're trying to do. You're trying to break up the marriage."

The curtain, the curtain! Bring down that curtain!

On October 24th and 26th the drama department presented a modern melodrama entitled "Speaking of Murder," in three acts, written by Audrey and William Roos. The play told the story of Annebelle Logan who wanted the love of Charles Ashton. But, Charles is happily married to Connie Barnes, therefore Annabelle must get rid of Connie to get Charles. Annabelle has already killed his first wife so she thinks she will have no trouble in getting rid of Connie. First she tries to turn Ricky, Charles' eleven-year-old son, against Connie. Annabelle decides to lock Connie in the family vault. To test the vault she puts Joe, Connie's pet dog in it. She then blames Ricky for the dog's death. Also, to help her plot along, Annabelle cuts up a dress of Connie's and this, too, she blames on Ricky. However, Annabelle's alibi for the afternoon Connie is to be killed is Mrs. Walworth, a drinking "friend" who is blackmailing her. After Annabelle has locked Connie in the vault, she finds out that Mrs. Walworth is dead, and she was not where Annabelle said they were. As time passes Charles looks for the combination for the vault, but he can not find it. Since Ricky knows the combination the police try to blame him for locking Connie in it. Ricky opens the vault and just as Connie is about to tell who did it Annabelle slips into the unlocked vault. Charles, not knowing she is in it slams the door, saying, "I'll have this sealed tomorrow."

Our dedicated, hard-working student director.

"Give me the case or I shall call Connie down."

"Woof-woof."

"Fred's here. He's waiting."

"Speaking of Murder"

shows how good wins over evil

"Oh well, you didn't need that eye anyway!"

"You mean that dame up there everyone calls a witch?"

"You betrayed your mother, you sided with humans against me."

Mrs. McThing,

scores hit, enjoyed by many

The second play of the West High season was "Mrs. McThing," a fantasy involving witches, gangsters, and three scatter-brained sisters. The trouble all started with a small girl who thought she was the loveliest child in all the world, and ended with everyone living happily ever after.

"Give me my antimacassar you, you old maid!"

"Come in early tonight, and don't bring any of these bums with you!"

"Don't be afraid, follow me."

Student Publications

written, edited by journalism classes

F2 is the scene of many hurried hours for students meeting deadlines on the newspaper and yearbook. Sizing pictures, writing copy, editing, and making up pages are just a few of the jobs these students performed to bring an enlarged yearbook and a weekly paper to the student body second semester.

Trail staffers, who receive no credit for their class, jaunted to Chicago at Thanksgiving to attend the National Scholastic Press Association Convention. Many new ideas were gained from this experience. The enlarged student life section in this year's book was a change the staff felt many would enjoy.

West Worders put out several eight page editions this year as well as an April Fool edition. The staff increased in number at semester and put out a weekly paper second semester. The business of these publications is handled almost entirely by the students who can receive up to three semesters credit.

increase concentration and initiative

This being the first complete year for Key Club, the members worked to develop initiative, leadership, and good citizenship. Projects this year were clean-up of the grounds, custodian office help, and raising the flag each morning. Also the members played host to the guests from the Masonic Home when they attended the Christmas program. This club has established a good record for helping West and the community in its first year.

This year marks the fourth anniversary of Chess Club. It was organized on March 2, 1960. This year the club consists of fifty-four members.

It gives basic chess instruction and tournament play. The tournament goes on all year and is divided into two levels; first for advanced, and second for beginners. The tournaments are set up to help the members increase their skill in playing chess.

Student Council

carries out wishes of student body

Student Council is made up of thirty-three members of the student body who try to make West High the best school in the city by carrying out wishes of the student body. Among the projects sponsored by Student Council this year are activity tickets, the new West High flag, decals in the parking lot, and Christmas decorations both inside and outside. This year Stu-Co has been emphasizing Toys for Tots, the student lounge, breakfast in the cafeteria, beautification of the school, a safety campaign and the adoption of a boy in Hong Kong. Each month Stu-Co sends money for the support of this orphan in Hong Kong. Now through the working of Stu-Co this boy can live a healthy life. This year, at the end of Toys for Tots, the student body had raised three-fourths ton of toys and $139.

Science Club, Y-Teens

meet bi-weekly for fun and education

Science Club spends most of its time working on projects for Junior Academy of Science, the Science Fair and papers for them.

Ranking high in the Junior Academy, and receiving six expense paid trips including one to the World's Fair for the sponsor and winner, are among the activities.

The goals of the Y-Teens have been to develop socially, mentally, and physically. While attaining their goals they have been participating in the Inter-Club Council, having hayrack rides, parties and playnights. Special projects for this year were: participating in World Fellowship projects and service, helping to support a Tennessee mountain school through the Children's Federation, and they also support city-wide projects. The Y-Teens also gave the all school Thanksgiving Assembly.

Future Medical Careers, Future Teachers

work for life-long careers

This group is made up of students planning to go into some phase of medicine after graduation. During the year the club has speakers, films and discussions on different fields of medicine. At Christmas time, the members took toys and Christmas tree decorations to the County Hospital. Also, the club members adopted a family to which they gave food and gave a gift to one of the children, a boy four and one half years old.

To Boothe Memorial Hospital the members sent a stethascope and a repaired radio.

During the year, the members of the Future Teachers Club act as hosts and hostesses at open house. They visit colleges and attend state conventions. As a special project they give books to the children at the Maude Carpenter Home at Christmas. The goal of Future Teachers Club is to interest students in becoming teachers while rendering a service to the school and community. While they have been working on these projects they have helped themselves while they have been helping others. This year the membership was forty-three.

does many worthy things for our community

The special project for the High School Red Cross was writing to a school in Greece. During the year High School Red Cross members have visited care homes, hospitals and orphanages presenting programs and adopting care homes. Also they have been filling chests with articles such as soap, towels, toys, and other non-perishable goods to exchange with other countries. The goals of the High School Red Cross are to visit as many agencies as possible and to present good programs that will cheer the sick. This year, while working on these activities and goals they have done a service for the community and for West.

further language study, have annual banquet

During the year the Latin club has tried to increase their speaking fluency of the Latin language. Meeting bi-weekly, they have had interesting programs and speakers. At the end of the year the club gets together for a banquet at which they eat food like the Romans ate and dress as the Romans did.

This year French club tops the membership of all other clubs with a membership of ninety-one.

Throughout the year French club has been having films in French and about France. They caroled in the halls and at Orphans' Homes and Rest Homes. At Christmas time they were working on the Toys for Tots campaign. As a special project, three French students are going on a trip this summer to Paris and spending five weeks in Switzerland to study. In the spring the French club ends the year with a banquet at the Rolling Hills Country Club.

Sports

change with seasons

With the fall came football with the pep assemblies, the taste of sweet victory and bitter defeat, the homecoming, the annual pep rally and football dance.

With the winter came basketball, swimming, gymnastics, and wrestling.

With basketball came more double and triple headers at the Field House, and frustrating overtimes. Swimming brought chlorine-reddened eyes, and waterlogged boys. With gymnastics came the silence and awe of concentration, and a greatly improved team.

Wrestling brought groans and stiff muscles, and a ninth place in state.

With the spring, sports moved out-of-doors once again and track, tennis, golf, and baseball appeared. Track brought dashes, jumps, spills, cinders, and sawdust. Tennis brought bouncing balls and swishing rackets. Golf brought greens, balls, and nine irons. With baseball came talent on the diamond and slides through the mud.

After it was all over there remained the warm glow of team spirit, the memories of victory and defeat, and the sportsmanship —these were the real treasures and triumphs of the 1963-1964 season.

The Pioneers ended the '63-'64 season with a win-loss record of 5-1 in the City League and a 7-2 mark for the season. They took second place in the City behind the undefeated Kapaun Crusaders and were rated fourth in the State.

West completely dominated the statistics by compiling 2,546 total yardage, 102 first downs, and 262 points. They intercepted 12 passes and averaged 29.1 points per game.

Senior halfback Jim Brown set three new records for West. They were: 16 touchdowns in a season, 23 touchdowns in a career, and 1,138 yards gained.

Mike McKay, a junior fullback, set a new record of 26 points after touchdown in a season.

Quarterback, John Burchell, a junior, has set a new pass completion percentage record of .559.

Rick Fitzgerald, junior tackle, tied the record for the longest touchdown pass reception by catching a 60-yard pass from Marion Manlove in a tackle-eligible formation in the East game.

Basketball Team

finishes season of firsts

The 1964 Basketball season brought with it many firsts in the City League as well as at West. Coach Charles Sanger, new at West this year from Valley Center, spent his first season as the basketball mentor. This was the first year for the City League to hold triple headers at W.U. Field House. The Pioneers played the first game of the first triple header and beat East in an overtime. West's cagers hosted the Kapaun Crusaders in the Pioneer gym and finally lost to them after a hard fought game that lasted five overtimes. It was the first game in the records of the City League to last so long. When tournament time rolled around in January, the Pioneers scored another first by winning their own invitational.

This year's team posted a win-loss record of 14 wins and 4 losses for third place in the City League. Three of the four games lost were in League play.

Sponsored by Miss Lois Wisler and Mrs. Diana Cubbage, the club held a junior high playday for some of the ninth grade girls who will attend West next year, and the annual Faculty vs. Letterwomen Volleyball game. The purpose of the club is to interest girls in athletics and encourage them to take part in extracurricular activities.

The Lettermen's Club strives to promote better athletics, scholarship, sportsmanship and spirit of competition. This year they ran the concession stand at some of the basketball games played here at West, sold programs, and held play nights. Cross Country

practices, gains experience

Under the direction of Mr. Joseph Zuvanich, this year's Cross Country squad competed in eight meets.

Mike Sheahon, Cliff Hiebash, and Ron Callison, all juniors, were the returning lettermen.

Although West did not win any of the meets participated in, some of the boys placed in the events. Mike Sheahon, captain, was a medalist. Hopes are bright for next year's squad because several of this year's sophomores will be returning along with the lettermen.

Pioneer finmen splashed their way to a 7-2 season record and an eighth place berth in the State. In the process the team set ten new school records. Most of them were set by underclassmen which would indicate an even stronger team is in the making for next winter. Dave Maclaskey, a junior, holds four of the ten new records and will be returning next season to bolster the squad.

Nine of the swimmers represented West at the State Tournament on Feb. 14, 15. They were Jerry Lancelot, Doug Ballard, Dave Maclaskey, Bob Hill, Greg Musselman, Frank Hoover, Jerry Lowderman, Milton Dowty, and Kent Roberts.

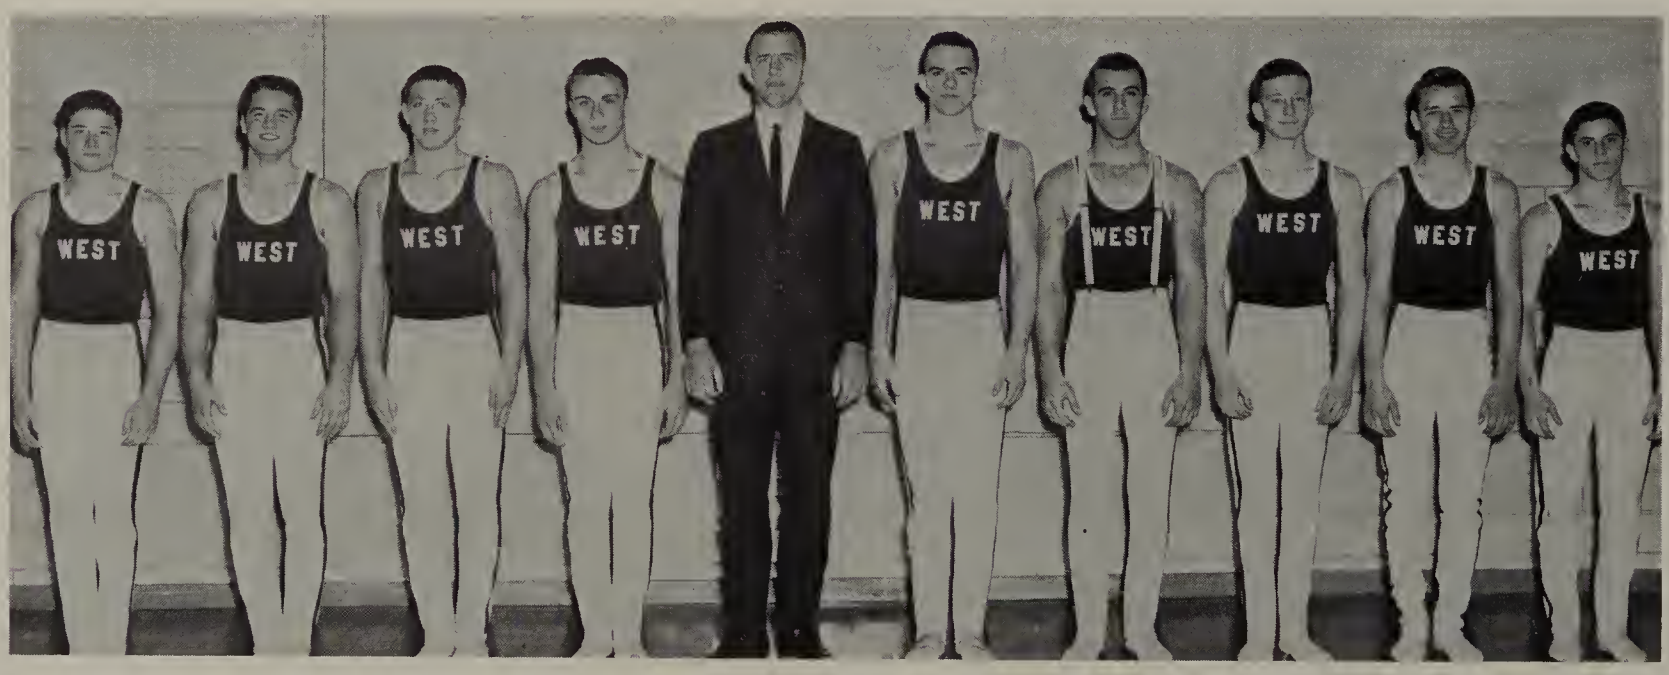
Gymnasts

gain experience, take 2nd in city

This year's gymnastic squad, hampered by illness, inexperience, and ineligibility, got the season rolling after a slow start to capture a second place berth in the city and fourth in state. The team posted 3 wins, 4 losses, and 1 tie in dual meets.

Senior captain Tom Stovey, ineligible first semester because he recently moved back into the district, came back second semester to successfully defend his title as State Champion of Free Exercise.

Mike Young, a junior, holds a new school record of the number of points scored in a single season with 105. Rick Eades, another senior, scored consistently on the horizontal bar. Randy Toombs, Bob Eades, Mike Young, Dan Beal, Jack Vickers, and Lynn Arthaud, all juniors, will form the base of next year's team ably aided by sophomore Glen Clifford.



Gymnastic Squad: B. Eades, D. Beal, G. Clifford, T. Stovey, Coach L. Leep, J. Vickers, R. Toombs, R. Eades, L. Arthaud, M. Young.

Tennis Team

spites wind, defends city title

This year's tennis team is the defending City Champ and going all out to defend the title. The outstanding players should be Phil McNeal, Bill Nath, Marlin Godown, and Hank Buscher. The team, coached by Mr. Dennie Bretz, will participate in eight regular matches and the city, regional, and state tournaments. Although they have been interrupted by a strong Kansas breeze and a few snow flurries, the team has been getting in shape for the heavy schedule ahead.

Retrieving the balls is all part of the game.

Cindermen

show strong points in dashes, relays

Five returning lettermen, Jim Hignite, Ron Adam, Delbert Hammond, Bob Hammond, and Gary Ledbetter, form the base of this year's track team. Although the dashes and relays will be the strong point, the team is working to improve in every area. The track has been improved with the addition of asphalt runways for the high jump, broad jump, and pole vault. Concrete rings have been installed for the discus and shot put.

Golfers

head for greens, sink putts

Highlighted by promising sophomores and two returning lettermen, Phil Hyre and Randy Rariden, the 1964 golf team prepared to take on all comers at Sim's Park. Beginning with practices in mid-February, which were interrupted by snow, they trained for 6 dual meets and 2 tournaments, the regional and state.

Diamondmen

return 8, train for top season

West's baseball team is looking forward to another successful season with eight returning lettermen and many new prospects. Leading the team will be senior pitchers Bill Maddux and Jim Gray. Ten games are scheduled for the varsity team while the "B" team will face four opponents. Coach J. D. Shouse will be assisted by Mr. Donald Olson this year.

Conclusion

And so, as another year comes to a close, the kaleidoscopic whirl begins to slow. Soon now, it will stop completely, and a new pattern will begin to form. The reflected images of this year, good and bad alike, will probably never be forgotten. Many cannot be forgotten.

A tragic event—the assassination of John F. Kennedy—will remain perhaps the most outstanding happening of the school year. From the time the shocking intercom announcement interrupted fourth hour classes, through a long weekend of sadness, and a day's dismissal for national mourning, not many students escaped a personal feeling of loss for the great leader.

Fortunately, the good memories far outnumber the bad. The year was filled with new fads—"Beatlemania" and suckers for example, and new accomplishments, such as taking fourth in state in football, and capturing state firsts and seconds in gymnastics. The debate squad presented West with its first debate trophy and a few seniors presented themselves with the first senior row in the parking lot.

As one reflects on the year's occurrences, it seems hard to believe that time has passed so quickly and the year is ending. For many seniors a new life is beginning as they prepare to step from this kaleidoscopic world into a much bigger one.

But as always the majority of students remain, waiting to become next year's upperclassmen when they will return to West to take their place in a new revolving circle of people, places and things.

Trading cards was almost as big a mix-up as the Trail signing party!

Cheerleading tryouts were attended by many (girls) and climaxed by the election of six.

A Year Includes

cheerleading tryouts, a singing Christmas tree, and seniors exchanging their cards

A year includes many things, so many they could never all be written here or even remembered.

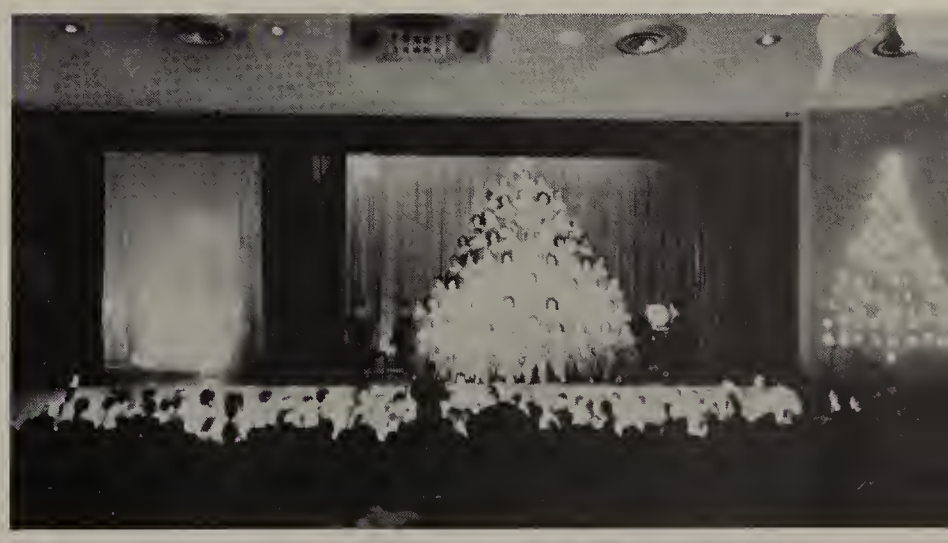
Many students have fond memories of their first high school football game, and trying to remember whether their science class is G8 or H8.

For others there are memories of getting class rings and a research theme.

For 476 people there are last memories, the last game, the last day at the senior table, the last class and then graduation.

For all, this is not really an ending but another new beginning.

An annual event: Our singing Christmas tree.



". . . forever and ever!"

An experimental drama was presented at West this year for the final production of the '63-'64 season.

"Our Town" used only ladders, a few chairs, sound effects, and a talented presentation of pantomime by the actors and actresses.

The stage manager, played by Richard Aley, came on stage at times to explain various things not explained by the action.

Robin Ragland played Emily Webb, a romantic young girl, and Victor Jones played George Gibbs, Emily's beau and later her husband.

It was enjoyed by many for its unusualness and talented presentation.

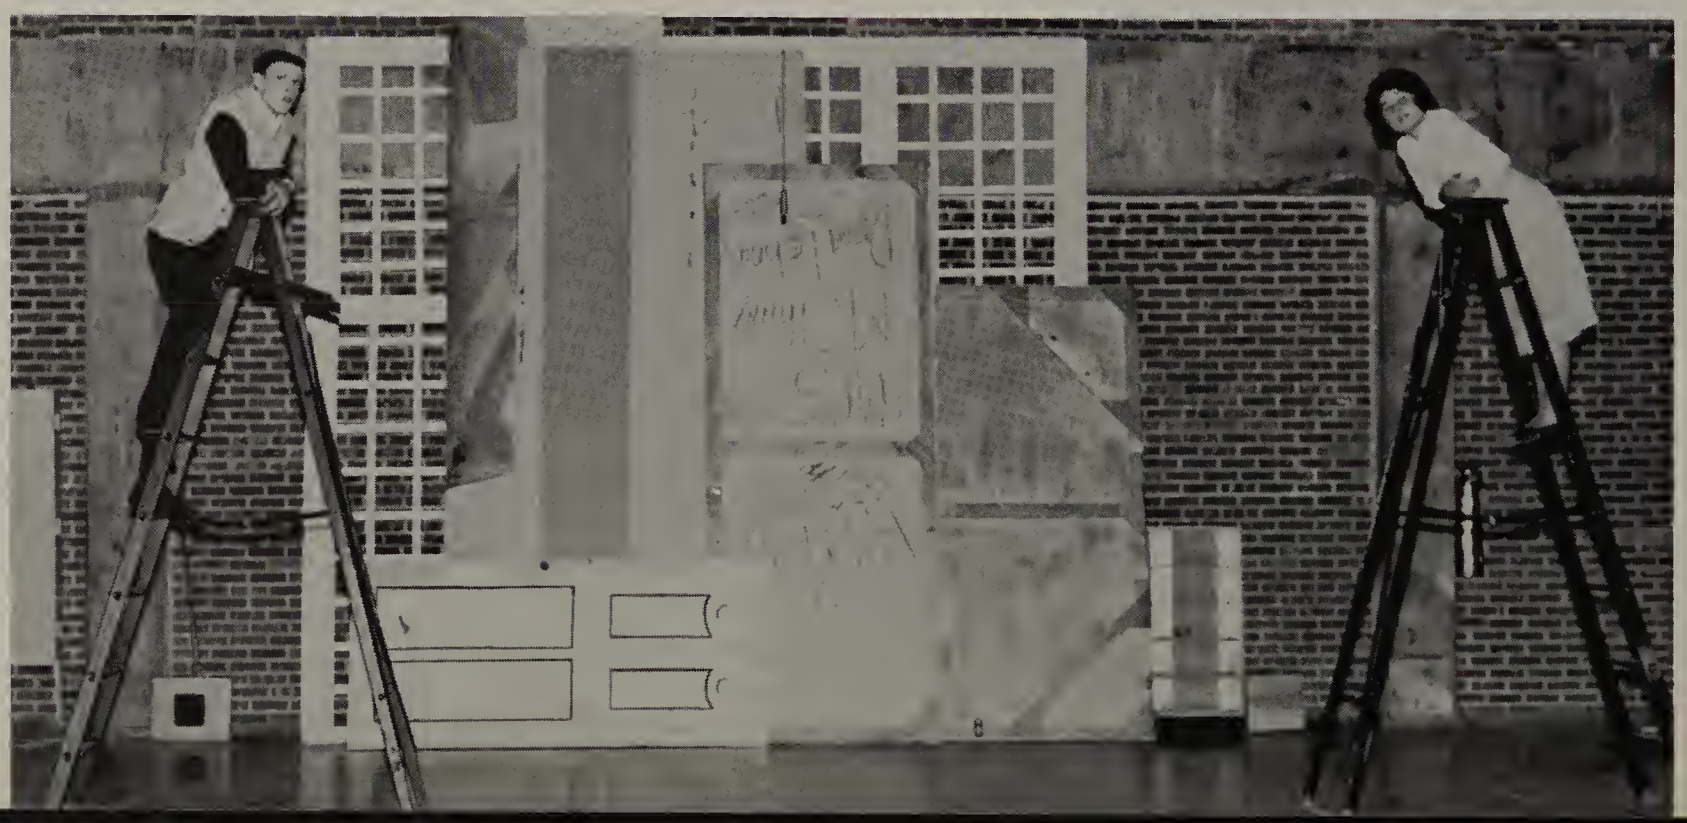
"Isn't the moon terrible?"



"You can go back, can't you?"

Experimental Drama Presented

After the bride threw her bouquet, the audience threw rice at the retreating couple.

"What kind of shoes are those, Dahling?"

Assemblies Presented

"Johnny Carson Show"

"Buddy Bill"

The Johnny Carson show, the S.S. Abominable and the Powder Puff were the scenes of the Sophomore and Senior Assemblies.

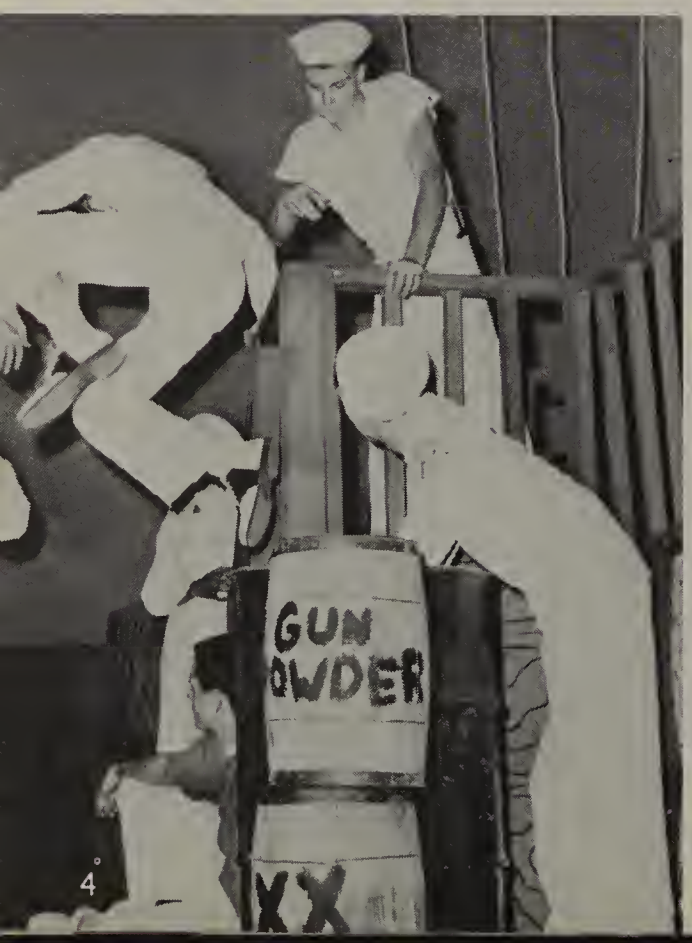
The West stage was transformed into the Johnny Carson show during the Soph assembly and was graced with the appearance of Zsa Zsa Gabor and Granny from the Beverly Hillbillies.

The seniors turned it into two giant pirate ships with Captain Cloddy and Esmerelda at their heads as they waged war on each other.

Both were well planned and produced.

"Be my, be my Baby."

Everyone is a little sick on the S.S. Abominable on a Monday morning.



"But never, never on a Monday 'cause that's the day I've had enough!"

". . . and now we are the greatest pirates on the sea!"

Betty and Bill

reign as Prom Royalty

The queen, Betty Caire, is crowned and given red roses.

"Lisbon Antigua" was the theme for this year's Junior-Senior Prom, held at the Cotillion Ballroom. The highlight of the evening was the crowning of the Prom King and Queen, Bill Nath and Betty Caire.

Decorations of the dance floor included a fountain and the tables were decorated with dripped wax bottles with a red rose in each.

The evening was enjoyed by many and will be long remembered especially by the graduating seniors!

Even Babe Ruth struck out once in a while.

Hours of practice make up an 8-1 season.

Diamondmen

place 3rd in State Tourney

The Pioneers won their own regional and went on to take third in the State Baseball Tourney at El Dorado.

This year the batmen had three men with a batting average of .300 or over. Frank Bush had a .351 average, John Dickson had .300, and Larry Oard had .333. Bill Maddux was the outstanding pitcher. He allowed only 15 hits and 20 walks. He struck out 89 of the 204 opponents that he faced for an 8 win, 1 loss record. He and Jim Gray pitched two no hitters.

Netmen

take 2nd in League play

With only three returning lettermen, Hank Buscher, Bill Nath and Marlin Godown, coach Dennie Bretz took four newcomers, Jerry Sullivan, Steve Sundberg, Marshal Minor and Rick Stauffer, and formed a winning combination.

West's real strength was in the bottom part of the ladder. From the second spot on down, the Pioneer netmen were hard to beat. Kapaun was the only team able to break through.

Golfers

send 6 to Regionals

Commencement: Beginning

marriage,

college,

service?

Three very proud seniors descend the ramp after receiving a piece of paper, called a diploma, that climaxes twelve years of hard work.

Commencement, as Dr. Friesen explained, is not the end but the beginning.

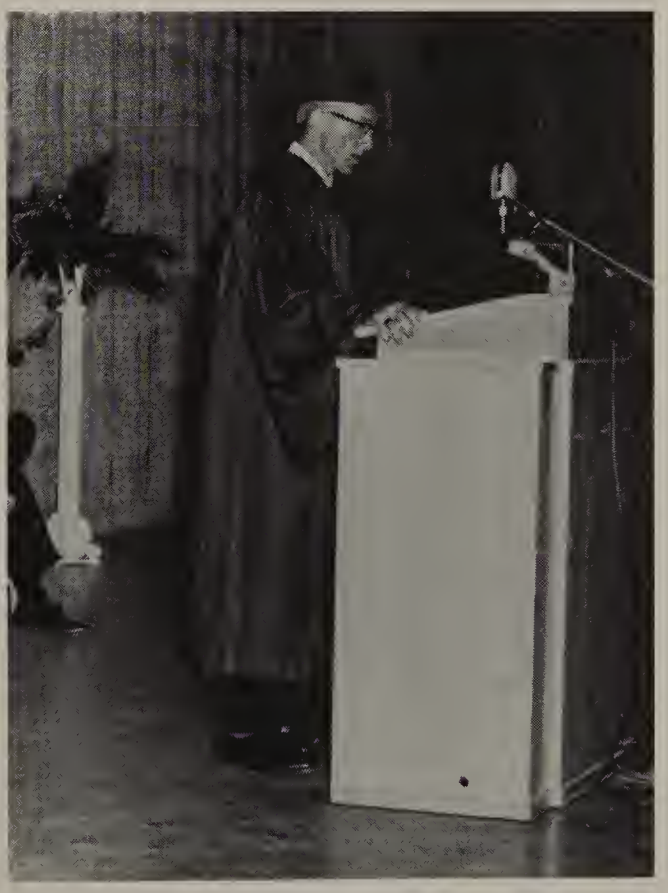
The future will include many and varied things. Many seniors will be getting married, or going into the service, or just sitting, or going on to college, or working, or going on to a vocational school.

Whatever they go on to do we wish them great success and happiness!

476 proud WEST High SENIORS!

The first student speaker, Ann Baker, spoke on the subject, "Impossible!", that made many stop and think.

The second speaker, John Manuel, "salvaged enough from censorship" to give an excellent speech!



Six Wichita high schools gathered at the W.U. Fieldhouse for Vespers.

Vespers:

Many inspired by Rev. Youngs

Left, right, left, right, left, right, left, right, left, right, left, right, left, right, left, right, left, right.

The annual ring turning brings out the beast in Mike Miller.

Tom Stovey, president of the senior class, leads the departing seniors in the alma mater.

Some joyful and some sad, maybe it depends on whether one passes or flunks.

Everyone joins in singing the alma mater for the last time.

Last Day

brings tears, and triumphs

What is important about 3:15 p.m. on May 22, 1964? Four hundred and seventy-six people can tell you, for that was their last high school day.

Twelve years ended with the seniors gathering at the clock at D and G and Tom Stovey leading the singing of the alma mater, the S-E-N-I-O-R yell, many tears and relieved smiles, and a kiss for every ring turned.

Remember your first day of grade school? For these people that day and this will be long remembered as the beginning and end of about 2150 days of worry, grade cards, browning and days and days of hard work and fun!

Good luck, SENIORS! We wish you the best of everything!

And So,

The year ends
with many fond memories

An important part of the year were the basketball games.
